What is Wood Badge?

- Leadership course for trained: Cub Scout Leaders, Boy Scout Leaders, Venturing Advisors and Exploring Advisors.
- Worldwide training tradition that reaches back to the days of the founding of Scouting. Six day experience, over the course of two 3-day weekends, in which you learn more about Scouting, leadership and yourself. It is only offered in Tuscarora Council every Two Years – so act fast!
- All trained adult Scout Leaders are encouraged to attend Wood Badge; space is limited. Wood Badge is the highest and most advanced training course offered by the Boy Scouts of America. While it is rich in Scouting History and tradition, participants will learn modern leadership theories from contemporary scholars such as Ken Blanchard, Steven R. Covey and Spencer Johnson. Many employers are familiar with the value of this leadership training course, and some will even cover a portion of the course fees. (Informational employer letters are available upon request.)

When is Wood Badge held, and Where does it take place?

- February 08-10, 2019 – All Day (Friday, Saturday, and Sunday)-Indoor class room
- March 09-11, 2019 – All Day (Saturday, Sunday and Monday)-Patrol camping
- Camp Tuscarora Scout Reservation, Four Oaks, NC

Why Should I Attend Wood Badge, and How much does it cost?

- It will make you a more effective leader.
- It will be fun while teaching practical applications of listening, communicating, project planning and team building.
- You will connect with fellow Scouters who will become friends for life and a valuable resource for years to come.
- S7-424-19 course fee is $200.00. The fee will cover meals, lodging, course hat, course notebook, and other program materials for the 6 full days, as well as training recognition.
